

FRV TRAVEL – CASA BRIO

Edition 10.3 October - November 2013

Below: Outdoor BBQ dining uses the rooftop.

Stroll to La Lucciala! Check, Sabay to Sarung! Check. Stumble back from Potato Head! Check. Whether you're heading for Bali's chic south-western strip for a weekend or a week, Casa Brio places you in the heart of the action: a hot breath from Seminyak's hottest restaurants and bars, and a credit card's whisper from the coolest boutiques and spas.

Brio means vivacity, enthusiasm and spirit in Italian. It's certainly a word that captures the very essence of Casa Brio, away from the crowd on a quiet street yet only five minutes walk from the beach – a magnet for muscle-rippling surfers quenching their thirst with ice-cold Bintang and a cosmopolitan crowd quaffing sunset cocktails. Though with a 21-metre-long pool, rooftop sunset terrace, semi-alfresco dining pavilion and the services of your own gourmet chef, you may never want to leave the villa!

Stroll to La Lucciola? Check. Sashay to Sarong? Check. Stumble back from Potato Head? Check. Whether you're heading for Bali's chic south-western strip for a weekend or a week, Casa Brio places you in the heart of the action a hen's breath from Seminyak's hottest restaurants and bars, and a credit card's whisper from the coolest boutiques and spas.

Italian elan is evident in the design of this contemporary four-bedroom villa — all clean lines, a crisp colour palette, and custom furniture. The open-sided living pavilion sprawls the full length of the pool, where you can languish on comfortable upholstered sofas, enjoy dinner for ten, or perch on a bar stool watching your martini being shaken and stirred;

what a great space for a celebration, spilling onto the frangipani-framed, sunlounger-filled pool deck drifting towards the gazebo. There's even more entertainment space in the adjoining two-storey building, linked by a covered walkway: a dedicated media room where you can watch cable TV or catch the latest film in air-conditioned comfort, and a sunset terrace for dining under a canopy of stars. All four bedrooms — a king-bedded master suite and adjoining twin-bedded suite on each level — have fabulous bathrooms with twin stone sinks, rain-showers and tubs.

Casa Brio accommodates eight people in luxury — perfect for groups of friends or two families of four.
